

maltabiennale.art 2024

baħar abjad imsajar taz-żebbuġ

Call for Artists/ Call for Pavilions

maltabiennale.art TOOLKIT

22.03.2023

Information on Website

Call for Pavilions

This call is intended for both local and international artists, curators, curatorial teams, project managers, etc., wishing to present projects in accordance with the theme of this year's Biennale.

Click on the following web link for information and application: Call for Pavilions

Call for Artists

This call is intended for both local and international artists, curators, curatorial teams, project managers, etc., wishing to present projects in accordance with the theme of this year's Biennale.

Click on the following web link for information and application: Call for Artists

Short Video about the maltabiennale.art

Click on link to view/download short 30 second promotional video

To view the video in good resolution, it is suggested that you download it to your device. The video is also available on the website

maltabiennale.art

Taking place between March and May 2024, Malta's first art biennale will coincide with the turn of spring, a glorious time of year that sees the Mediterranean island bloom with warm weather and extended hours of daylight. maltabiennale.art will transform some of the islands' most beloved historic sites and outdoor areas into stages for artistic creations and expressions. Learn more

Brochure

A brochure regarding the call for Pavilions. Click on the link to download the brochure. If you require printed copies, write to us on communications@biennale.art and let us know the number of copies needed by Friday 31st March.